Subject: Materials for March 3 Meeting at IFA

Dear Colleagues:

Attached are preparatory materials for our meeting this Friday, March 3, on the state of scholarly publication in art history:

1. Preliminary agenda
2. A project overview of the Mellon Study on the State of Scholarly Publication in Art and Architectural History
3. ACLS Occasional Paper 57 on "Crises and Opportunities: The Futures of Scholarly Publishing;" see particularly the Remarks by Lynne Withey (Director, U. California Press) and John Unsworth (Dean, Graduate School of Library and Information Science, U. Illinois)
4. A report by Beatrice Rehl (Editor, Cambridge U. Press) on the crisis in scholarly publishing
5. A report by Madeline Caviness (Professor of Art History, Tufts University) on electronic book publishing in art history.

As you know, our meeting will be held at the Institute of Fine Arts, 1 East 78th Street, New York. We shall start promptly at 9:00am, and make every effort to end by 3:00pm. Refreshments and lunch will be served.

Thank you again for your willingness to participate in this meeting. We look forward to working with you on Friday.

All best,

Mariët Westermann
